OBSERVE THIS DATE

OCTOBER 9, next Monday, the date set by gubernatorial proclamation as fire protection day, is one that should be most generally observed in Tonopah. All householders and business men are requested on this occasion to make most careful inspection of stove pipes, flues and chimneys, to prevent danger of fire. Electrical wiring should also be inspected and other precautions taken against fire.

The season is at hand when there will be more heat required in buildings and the chances for fires are now the greatest in the year. Fully nine-tenths of the conflagrations are preventable, and there is no question that a large amount of money will be saved to the state if fire protection day is properly observed.

KITCHEN CONDEMNS WILSON

ONLY a short time ago, Representative Kitchen, the Democratic leader of the house, paid his respects to the president, and incidentally to Josephus Daniels, who, as everyone knows, is merely one of the mouthpieces of Woodrow Wilson. Said Mr. Kitchen: "I believe I said it was criminal for this house to vote upon a proposition that would take hundreds of millions of dollars needlessly out of the treasury through the proposition presented by the gentleman from Pennsylvania. And yet in two short months the chairman of the committee on naval affairs, the secretary of the navy and the president and most of my fellow Democrats want me to get up now on this floor and eat my words, and say that the program of the gentleman from Pennsylvania and the Republicans, which they induced me then to denounce as criminal recklessness, is now the very perfection of virtue and patriotism." This was, it will be understood, the naval program which the Republicans urged in the house and which Mr. Kitchen, as he says, was induced by the president and Daniels to denounce as "criminal," which the senate later, under the lash of the president, adopted and the house agreed to, and which Mr. Daniels promptly proclaimed to the country as a great achievement of the administration.

ENGLAND AND HER COLONIES

IF England persists in its plan for compulsory enlistment in Ireland it will be making the gravest mistake in its modern history. The people of the Emerald Isle are of a character and temperament that brook no oppressive measures. They suffered under them sullenly through the centuries, violently opposing them when strength and opportunity permitted.

They are a people that may be led, but not driven. John Redmond yesterday expressed the feeling of the people of Ireland forcibly and succinctly. An appeal for volunteers brings patriotic men to the front, but conscripts do not make good soldiers.

England today faces dissolution of the empire. Forced enlistment in Ireland and the overseas colonies may hasten the date. When the war closes an attempt will be made to force a proportion of the heavy taxation that must ensue upon the empire of India and the colonies. This will be accepted in the same spirit as Ireland views compulsory military service. Without her colonies England would shrink to the proportions of a third-rate power. It would not be self sustaining. Its people would suffer great want. Great Britain should consider well before she heaps any needless burdens upon those she looks to for her very subsistence.

UNITED STATES MUST MEDIATE

THE war between Russia and Japan was brought to a conclusion through the unsolicited but acceptable mediation by President Roosevelt, and an appalling loss of life and treasure was averted because Russia, that in its unpreparedness, was suffering defeat, was yet about to demonstrate the ability to recuperate and strengthen itself that it has shown in the present conflict and would later have been more than a match for its insular enemy.

If well authenticated rumors are correct, the president of the United States will again mediate, but this time at the solicitation of one of the warring powers, a duty that is clear and cannot, in the interest of humanity, be left unperformed.

Perhaps the late dispatches today may affirm and perhaps deny the rumors flashed to the Bonanza yesterday from Berlin, London and Washington, but at this writing there is no lack of reason to believe that Ambassador Gerard is bringing to the United States a request from Wilhelm that this nation intercede with the ententes and secure the most favorable terms of peace.

The war, it is needless to repeat, has been the most appalling calamity that has ever befallen mankind. It has set back civilization for centuries. Millions of men and billions of dollars have been sacrificed. Treasures in art have been despoiled. God has ceased to reign. His laws as well as those of man have been set at naught.

The war must cease, and there is no power in the world save that of the United States of America that is capable of assuming the task. The psychological moment has arrived. The point of exhaustion is being reached by both sides. Unless the warriors are separated and pacified they may be deadlocked for years. THE WAR MUST CEASE. THE PRESIDENT DARE NOT DECLINE HIS TASK.

CLIPPED AND CREDITED

There would not be so much trouble about corns if shoes were made to fit the feet instead of the eye and the pocketbook.—Los Angeles Times.

Lady Eglantine, the prize hen that laid $10 eggs, is dead. It is understood that her inability to keep up with prevailing market prices slowly broke her heart.—Boston Transcript.

We do not know exactly what Japan is doing to China, but it is evident enough that China is squalling lustily and there's no police-man on the Asiatic beat.—Houston Post.

Queen Wilhelmina must have been perfectly at home in that submarine. All the old joggerphers told us that "the people of Holland live below the sea level."—Chicago Post.

General Brusiloff predicts the end of the war by next August. That is liable to peeve the Rumanians who have been promised that they might spend their Christmas in Sofia.—Galveston News.

Utah has a traveling schoolhouse. Fine thing. Boy doesn't have to run away from school. Just stays still and lets the school run away from him.—Nashville Tennessean.

With one Smith chief of police and another chief of detectives, the numerous family of that name should enjoy the freedom of the city for some time.—Tacoma Ledger.

Looking at the names of the men who form the new Greek cabinet, we do not wonder that when Greek meets Greek then comes the tug of pronunciation.—Waco Times-Herald.

Firms doing business in Manila are not "enemy firms," whether German or not, unless Great Britain is at war with the government under whose protection they live.—Philadelphia Record.

Some people are finding fault with the New York restaurants for the change to smaller menu cards. Still, it's better, don't you think, to economize on the card than on the food?—Nashville Tennessean.

THE STROLLER

BY L. B. (LETSON) BALLIET

For some years I have occasionally written short articles for publication in various papers under this head. Some have been intended to amuse, and some to make the readers think. Never are they intended to offend. Friendship comes from kindness, and I think I have many friends among the readers of this paper, and I hope to make more. If my views differ from yours, I grant you the right to your views just as freely as I claim the right to my own. If your politics differ from mine, you have every right to your own convictions, the same as I have to mine, and I will still be your friend, without regard to politics, religion, race, color, nationality or occupation. I shall pay for this space at advertising rates and thus be sure it will not be crowded out by more important matter.

I have been in hopes that the Democratic machine politicians and taxaters would reply to some of the STROLLER's comments on efficiency in office, and try to make a denial of the facts which would give me an opportunity to point out specific instances of inefficiencies.

DO THEY DENY

1. That the taxes in Nye county are higher than they have been for years?
2. That Nye county has the highest tax rate in the state?
3. That the burden of taxation is unbearable?
4. That the 1916 taxes are higher than 1915?
5. That $205,000 of 1915 taxes are gone—spent?
6. That they have borrowed $20,000 to use during campaign time?
7. That $50,000 of 1915 taxes went for salaries?
8. That much more is grabbed for mileage, incidentals, travel expense, fees, etc.?
9. That the "Man with the pay check" pays the taxes?
10. That the borrowed $20,000 must be paid back with interest?
11. That Billy Walker pays no taxes on his automobile?
12. That Billy Walker is assessed as worth $100 only?
13. That "machine politics" are a burden to the citizens?
14. That "machine politics" are inefficient, if not nefarious?
15. That bookkeepers can tell "how much is spent" but not "how much more has been spent than should be"?
16. That the tax assessments are not alike on all people? ($250 cabins of poor me assessed at $400.)
17. That the assessor draws a commission on taxes as assessor but pays deputy sheriffs to do the work out of county funds, and still draws the commission as clear profit?
18. That the sheriff has no use for Billy Briggs after the election and will lay him off as soon as election is over?
19. That Billy Briggs and Bob Williams as salaried employees of the county made up a "statistical table" or annual report of the assessor's work, and the county paid them for doing it, though the sheriff put in a bill for $100 extra for doing this work? See Bill No. 1312—published list of County Bills paid.
20. That the county business is very extravagantly handled?
21. That the roads are a disgrace to any county?
22. That there has never been a real audit of county books?

IN SHORT, DO THEY DENY ANYTHING?

CAN THEY DENY ANYTHING? I do not wish to impugn anything against my opponent—maybe he is doing the best he can. But the citizens are paying the bill. There is always excuse for criticism of the acts of a public official—but never an excuse to vilify the man. I do not believe in "mud slinging" against any man—but I can ask for information about their own published statements and their official acts.

If you want this kind of an administration, it is up to the voters to say. If you think that I can, and will, serve you better, and more efficiently, I shall be glad to have you vote for me on November 7th for the office of Sheriff and Assessor of Nye county.
